

The Obligation to Report a Sexual

Offence Policy (Failure to Disclose)

| Under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) (section 327), anyone a years or over must make a report to the Police if they f reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been commit against a child under the age of 16 years, by a person ag years or over. The person must disclose the information of Police as soon as it is practicable to do so. Failure to ma report without reasonable excuse is an offence and carr prison term. Source of Obligation If a report is made to the Department of Families, Fairned Housing (Child Protection) in accordance with Mandato Reporting requirements, an additional report to the Police not usually be required unless further information is obta This obligation applies to anyone aged 18 years or over, including all non-teaching staff, Volunteers, and students 18 and over. The legislation also applies to teaching staff already covered by the mandatory reporting obligation. | Form a fited ged 18 to the ake a ries a ess and ory e will ained. |
|--|--|
|--|--|

| What to | The information that led the person aged 18 or over to form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed by an adult (a person aged 18 years or over) against a child under 16 must be reported to the Police. |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| Report | The College must notify the VRQA if the alleged sexual offence relates to an overseas student and the College has issued a Confirmation of Appropriate Accommodation and Welfare (CAAW) letter in relation to that student thereby assuming responsibility for approving the student's accommodation, support and general welfare. |
| Definition of a Sexual Offence | The Crimes Act sets out what constitutes a "sexual offence". This includes: rape indecent assault incest sexual penetration grooming a child, or a person who has the care, supervision or authority of a child aged under 16, for sexual conduct with the child encouraging a child to engage in, or be involved in, sexual activity. A "sexual offence" includes an attempted sexual offence. |

| Definition of a Reasonable Belief | A "reasonable belief" is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds. A "reasonable belief" might be formed when: a child states that they have been sexually abused a child states that they know someone who has been sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves) someone who knows the child states that the child has been sexually abused signs of sexual abuse lead to a belief that the child has been sexually abused. |
|---|---|
| How to Make a Report to the Police | To report to the Police that a child is in immediate risk of being sexually abused, please call Triple Zero (000). Alternatively, you can contact your local police station. |

| Exceptions | If you fail to disclose a sexual offence against a child to the Police, you will not be held liable where your reason for not reporting is that: you fear on reasonable grounds for the safety of any person (other than the offender), and a failure to report is reasonable the victim told you about the sexual offence (directly or indirectly), the victim was over 16 years old when they told you about the sexual offence, and the victim requested that the information not be disclosed (unless the victim has an intellectual disability and does not have the capacity to make an informed decision about this) you believe on reasonable grounds that the information has already been disclosed to the Police by another person (such as by Child Protection, in response to a Mandatory Report) and you have no further information. Unacceptable reasons for not reporting include if you are concerned with the interests (including the reputation, legal liability or financial status) of: the person involved in the sexual offence any organisation (such as the College). Making a report made under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 (Vic) Mandatory Reporting obligations may constitute a 'reasonable excuse' if you believe that you have no further information to provide to the Police. |
|------------------------|---|
| Keeping Obligations | For the College's record keeping obligations relating to child safety incidents, refer to Child Safety Record Keeping . |

This obligation to report policy is subject to change at any time. Please check the policy on our website (www.mthira.vic.edu.au) regularly for any changes.

Ratified by the Board on: Chairperson: Mr Tugrul Usta

Signature: _____

This policy will be reviewed as part of the College's 2 year review cycle